Conference Overview

In November 2010, the Alhamra Art Center opened its doors and welcomed thousands of passionate art lovers to attend the "1st International Conference on Literature & Culture" in which 100 plus speakers were invited from around the world to grace the event for three days. People were really excited to find these dignitaries amongst them and participated in all activities enthusiastically from 10am to 11pm. After such tremendous response by public the Alhamra Arts Council announced to keep this practice continued on an annual basis and by the grace of Allah, under the guidance of visionary Chairman Board of Governor Lahore Arts Council Mr. Atta Ul

Haq Qasmi the Team Alhamra performed well and produced something extra ordinary in every coming year to make this event a Lahore icon. The proceedings of these conferences were published in book form and widely appreciated by writers, connoisseurs of arts and the general public.

This year, the Alhamra Arts Council has decided to reach out to a much wider audience with a theme which resonates with everyone instead of focusing on literature and performing arts. For this purpose, the Alhamra Arts Council is organizing a three day 5th International Conference on the theme "Beetay Hoye Din Yaad Aatay Hain" in which notable people from all walks of life will be invited and talk about their childhood memories.

This will include guests who have had a distinguished career as a judge, journalist, bureaucrat, doctor, engineer, army general, businessman, academic, singer, scientist, lawyer, artist, social worker, politicians, scholars, sportsman, writer and poet.

Alhamra Young Artist Exhibition

Being the leading cultural hub of the country, the Alhamra Arts Council strives to bring a certain prominence to its activities. With a colorful history of more than 60 years, the council stand committed to maintain high standards while providing quality entertainment in various aspects. The Annual Exhibition of Young Artist 2014 is a prime example of such endeavors. None different from the past years, the response from all over Pakistan is overwhelming with works from different cities.

The practice of art needs encouragement & support and what better way there could possibly be than to showcase the talent at the oldest and most prestigious cultural hub of the country. The Lahore Arts Council feels great pride and satisfaction in providing a platform for the emerging artists. Indeed this event, now entered its 10th consecutive year, has a part to play as art from Pakistan continues to carve a niche for itself at the international level with quality creativity being the hallmark.

After the decision of our esteemed jury members that include Mian Ejaz ul Hassan, Hassan Shah Nawaz Zaidi, Zafarullah, Ghulam Mustafa & Irfan Ahmad Khan 13 participants were awarded Best Art Work prizes for their encouragement. Now, these works are exhibited in Alhamra Art Gallery for three days. So, don't forget to visit the talent of the nation.

پانچویں الحراء عالمی کانفرنس 2014 ”بیٹے ہوئے دن یاد آتے ہیں“ کے موقع پر پاک بھارت مشاعرہ ادب و ثقافت کی عالمی روایت کو برقرار رکھنے میں معادن ثابت ہوگا۔ جس میں دونوں ممالک سے شعراء کرام تشریف لارہے ہیں۔ چیمبرین بورڈ آف گورنرز، لاہور آرٹس کونسل عطا الحق قاسمی کی ہمیشہ سے یہ خواہش رہی ہے کہ الحراء آرٹس کونسل میں جب بھی کوئی عالمی نوعیت کا ادبی پروگرام منعقد ہو اس میں مشاعرے کا انعقاد ضرور کیا جائے کیونکہ ہمارے ہاں جو ادیب پیدا ہوئے ہیں ان میں کہیں نہ کہیں شعر کہنے، سننے اور دیکھنے کی حس ضرور زندہ رہی ہے۔ لہذا اس حقیقت کے پیش نظر اس مشاعرے میں جو 24 مئی 2014 کی رات الحراء ہال نمبر 11 میں منعقد ہوگا انڈیا اور پاکستان کے شعراء کرام اپنا اپنا کلام پیش کریں گے۔
